Just 1% of the 7.25% sales tax and 26% of property taxes go to the support the County of Tuolumne. The rest is directed to other entities, including and primarily the State of California.

There are many other local elected officials including:

- Sheriff/Coroner
- District Attorney
- Judges
- Treasurer
- Assessor-Recorder
- Tax Collector
- Superintendent of Schools
- Tribal Councils
- Sonora City Council
- Local school boards

- Special Districts

- State Elected Officers
- Federal Elected Officers

While some work closely with the Board, others operate independently.

Sonora is the only incorporated "city" in our county. Others areas are unincorporated townships.

While the Board oversees staff, the public is our ultimate boss. We're here to serve you.

CARRIED AN CHARLES AND BURN BLOW

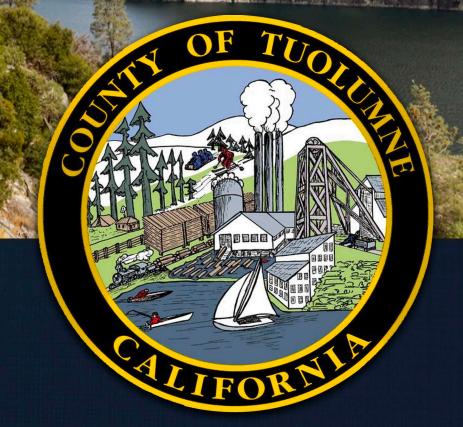

The Brown Act strictly limits communications. Supervisors cannot as a quorum (3) discuss business in person or online without an agendized public meetings.

A CHARLES TO THE STATE OF THE S

Counties can pass local ordinances, but cannot override state and federal laws.

Each year, the Board elects a Supervisor as Chair to run meetings, write agendas, and set direction, as well as a Vice-Chair to support.

What's a County Supervisor?

Tuolumne County is divided into five districts of roughly 10,500 people. Every four years, a Supervisor is elected to represent them. These five elected officials form the Board of Supervisors which oversee the the unincorporated area of Tuolumne County.

Why is it important?

The Board sets the vision, priorities, and policies for our county. They approve the annual budget, General Plan updates, changes to the ordinance code as well as oversee departments and staff, and speak for Tuolumne County and it's residents. They serve as an Executive, Legislative, and "quasi-judicial" unified government

What does the County do?

The County of Tuolumne has a role in almost everything locally. Over 600 staff serve you through solid waste, roads, building permits, law enforcement, libraries, social services, and much more. Our budget is around $200 million, $80 million of which is more flexible "General Fund" dollars.

What doesn't the County do?

Some functions are accomplished through other agencies. Schools are run through the Superintendent of Schools, the Tuolumne Utilities District (TUD) has their own elected board, highways are managed by CalTrans, Sonora has an elected City Council.

How is it paid for?

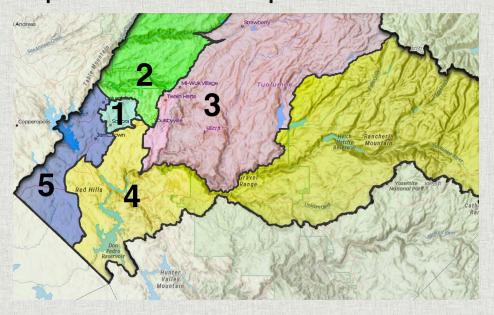

Roughly 60% of our funds are "pass through" from State and Federal programs for specific purposes. We also collect taxes on property, transient occupancy (hotels), service fees, and 1% of the local 7.25% sales tax. We cannot budget for deficits.
