Re: Billing for services to non-transported patients

The purpose of this memo is to clarify the ability of Tuolumne County Ambulance Service to bill for services when a patient is treated and not transported. Tuolumne County Ambulance Service is authorized to charge non-transported emergency patients the following:

Procedure	March 1, 2021	July 1, 2021
EKG	$179.00	$224.00
Treat, non-transport	$437.00	$547.00

A treated and non-transported patient is defined as a patient that receives one or more ALS medication(s) or procedure(s).

If non-transported patients does not meet the condition(s) above, no bill for services may be assessed.

Please contact the EMS Agency if you have any questions.

Thank you,

Kimberly Freeman, MD, CPE, FACEP, Paramedic
EMS Medical Director, Tuolumne County
