

The Lambert Community Center:

The Lambert Center opened in 1998 at the current site for outreach and socialization in a safe and caring place. The Center provides help and referrals to people experiencing homelessness that may be related to mental illness and/or addictions. The Center is supported by Tuolumne County Behavioral Health Department, along with numerous volunteers and groups, who contribute time and donations.

The Center was named for David Lambert who, in his late adolescence, was diagnosed with a mental illness. David died from the consequences of the illness. The Center is dedicated to help those who struggle with mental illness, along with their friends and families.

His family members say, "David would have loved this place and our family is pleased to be associated with the Center."

The Lambert Community Center

is partially supported by donations and collaboration with:

- Faith-based Organizations
- Community members and local businesses

The Center accepts donations:

Propane canisters
New socks
Food
Toiletries
Backpacks
Tents
Sleeping bags
Camping Equipment

Financial donations are welcome and always greatly appreciated!

The Center is funded by the voter approved Proposition 63, also known as, the Mental Health Services Act (MHSA). Additional supports are provided through community donations. The goals of the Center are to provide outreach to persons in need who may be living with mental illness and/or addiction and connect them to resources including referral to treatment when needed. Special efforts are made to assist those who are homeless and to provide resources and opportunities to restore persons to stable lifestyles and housing.

The Lambert Community Center relies on volunteers and help is always welcome! Volunteers provide a variety of supportive activities such as: preparing food; working with visitors to find resources; helping with special projects; all in an environment of respect, support and understanding.
